

Parish-to-Parish Weekly

A weekly publication of the Diocese of Pennsylvania's Communication Network. These brief "classifieds" are intended to keep the members of the diocese abreast of programs and activities in our parishes, share position openings throughout the diocese, and to let others know if we have excess good/items they might be able to use. As in many "Classified Ads", articles should not exceed 75 words in length (total, and no graphics) and may be submitted to J.D. Lafrance at Church House (idlafrance@diopa.org) no later than Wednesday morning each week for Thursday distribution via e-mail to the diocese. This document may be copied for distribution as desired.

CAMP GETALONG (CG) celebrates 21 years of service in the South Philadelphia neighborhood. CG was established at St. John the Evangelist Church, 1332 South Third Street, Philadelphia, PA with the help of Michael and Christa Tippet who now hosts the Sunday morning program Speaking of Faith. It has provided a safe environment for children 5 to 12 years old to learn peacemaking, community building, and the value of diversity. It also has provided an opportunity for youth and young adult counselors to cultivate their leadership skills. Three years ago a partnership developed with St. Peter's Church, Philadelphia. Camp Saturday was created to provide the children a place to continue to build upon the lessons they learn at summer camp. This year the partnership is expanding to include Emanuel Lutheran Church with whom St. John's is exploring the possibility of merging into one congregation. "Building peace in our diverse community" is CG's theme this year. The camp will open on July 5 and will end on August 6. For more information, please call 215 468-4020.

Artist-in-Residence at Philadelphia Cathedral [Volunteer Position]

The sponsoring of an Artist in Residence in Philadelphia Cathedral is a lead program designed to encourage local artists and at the same time enrich the cathedral's liturgical space with art work of high quality. In this way contemporary artists can help broaden the horizons of the faith community, and challenges us to think in new ways about old truths and familiar stories.

Applications are now being accepted for the Artist-in-Residence program for the year 2010-2011. A large and well-lit studio is provided free in exchange for a work of art to be kept on permanent display at the cathedral at the end of the 12 month period of residence. For more information, please contact Rieyhee Hong, the Director of Music and the Arts.

Servant Year Program

If you know of placements of college-age young people or recent college graduates who are seeking an opportunity to do something meaningful in outreach or urban ministries for a year through the diocese's Servant Year Program, please contact Matt Myers at 330-770-2471.
