

Middle East Study Group Diocesan Convention Report

Formed in 1993 as a result of a vote at the 1992 Diocesan Convention The Middle East Study Group is a standing committee of our diocese.

From September through June we meet every other month in solidarity with Christians in the Holy Land. We advocate in support of the efforts by the United States to help create a just peace for Israelis and Palestinians. We align our efforts with The Episcopal Church USA, the Anglican Consultative Council and our Palestinian brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Jerusalem.

On Thursday November 19, The Middle East Study Group and Assisting Bishop Michel will host retired United States Ambassador Warren Clark in a talk outlining United States strategies to promote a final peace for Israel and Palestine. Warren is the Executive Director of Churches for Middle East Peace. Bishop Michel has written to invite all interested Episcopalians to attend. Saint Asaph's parish hall is the location for the talk, which is set for 7:30 PM.
