Parish *	Chaplain, Temple University
Deanery	Pennypack
Office for which to be considered	Deputy to Provincial Synod
Occupation or Employer	Episcopal Diocese of Pennsylvania
Are you willing to stand for election? *	Yes
1. What motivated you to seek nomination for this committee?	In my work within the Province over the last six years (as Network Coordinator for Ministry in Higher Education), I have greatly valued the relationships and cross-pollination that the provincial structure allows between dioceses. I see the province as an exciting place both to grow ministry among dioceses and in which to foster support of our own Christian work here in the Philadelphia area. I believe that we have a lot to be proud of as a diocese as well as many opportunities to learn from other dioceses. I feel called to be part of that process o mutual growth.
2. If nominated, what added value would you bring to the Diocese in moving the committee forward with God's work?	In my capacity as Temple University Chaplain, I have journeyed to many of our parishes on Sunday mornings to meet the people in the pews, to preach, and to share the exciting ministry we are doing at Temple University. I have been a frequent attendee to Diocesan Council and other leadership bodies within the diocese. I believe that this experience has given me a good perspective on the landscape of the Diocese of Pennsylvania. With this experience and understanding, I will bring a strong understanding to the wider province of who we are as a diocese and people.
3. Please list relevant experience.	I have served for the last six years (two terms) as Province Three Network Coordinator for Ministry in Higher Education. In that role, I have attended nearly every meeting of the Province Three Synod. I am intimately familiar with the issues of the province as well with the people serving within Province Three.
