1. What motivated you to seek nomination for this committee?	The General Convention adopted significant changes to Title IV--the Canons related to ecclesiastical discipline and the Trial Court. We will soon see significant changes to the entire process. I seek service on this Court to help prepare for the change in system, and to provide faithful service, if needed, under the current Title IV.
2. If nominated, what added value would you bring to the Diocese in moving the committee forward with God's work?	The canons in Title IV, as currently established and as proposed, require careful and discerning application rather than legalistic and rigid interpretation. I believe I can apply the Title's demands for a fair process and protection for those harmed carefully and prayerfully.
3. Please list relevant experience.	Chair, Commission on Ministry, 2000-2007. Alternate Deputy, General Convention Deputation, 2009.
