Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This is the final notice and Schedule of Events for our upcoming Christian Education Event this Saturday, March 14 at St. Thomas' Whitemarsh.

Many of your educators have registered, but some that I have spoken to had not yet received the promotional materials, so just in case they have not received our previous notices please forward this email to the person in your parish who is responsible for your Christian Education and Lifelong Formation programs.

I have posted the schedule of events for the day below. Offerings include foundational areas of study such as Biblical Studies, the Book of Common Prayer, and curriculum choices for Sunday Schools. In addition, some thought provoking offerings will include Future Trends in Christian Formation/Education, how our educational programs can support Millennium Development Goals, and the role of Desmond Tutu's Ubuntu theology (the theme of this year's General Convention) in building new relationships in Christ.

If you are unable to attend, please make sure that your parish is represented. Our offerings are designed to support the work of new and experienced educators alike.

I'll look forward to seeing you on Saturday.

Yours in faith,

Henry
