The Standing Committee, in consultation with The Rt. Rev. Rodney Michel, has appointed Mr. Joseph Suprenuk, CPA as the Diocesan Treasurer effective Monday, July 27, 2009. Mr. Suprenuk is highly qualified for this position and had previously served as interim controller of the Diocese. He is an adjunct professor of Finance in the MBA program at Villanova University and CFO and Vice President of Finance at Insight Pharmaceuticals. As a member of Trinity Church, Gulph Mills, for 28 years, he has served in several capacities including Accounting Warden. He has a B.S. in Economics from Fordham University, an MBA in Finance from Georgia State University, and a Master of Taxation from Villanova University. Upon his appointment as Treasurer, which is a three year term, Mr. Suprenuk resigned his position as a member of the Standing Committee.

The Standing Committee and Bishop Michel express their deep and sincere thanks to Keel Jones for his faithful work and ministry as Treasurer of the Diocese for the past three years. Fr. Glenn M. Matis, President of the Standing Committee, said, "Keel has made a lasting contribution to this diocese and we are deeply grateful."
