November 11, 2011

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

I invite you to attend the “Faith and Neighborhood In Action: The Business of Community” Economic Recovery Symposium, scheduled for 9:30 am – 3:00 pm, on Wednesday, November 16, 2011 to be convened at the Hilton Hotel, 4200 City Avenue. The Symposium is hosted by Mayor Michael A. Nutter and President Barack Obama’s White House Office of Faith and Neighborhood Partnerships. It is designed to assist Faith and Neighborhood Leaders interested in working to promote economic recovery at the community level in partnership with local and federal government. The symposium will host key officials from the White House, Mayor’s Office and other federal and local government representatives on panels and seminars to discuss economic recovery collaboration opportunities.

Our diocese is hosting a stand-alone continental breakfast at the Hilton Hotel during the time of the Symposium that enables acknowledgment and appreciation of the Diocese’s work in the area of economic development and global relief of poverty and human suffering as models for consideration by local faith and neighborhood leaders that can potentially be replicated in impoverished and blighted neighborhoods in the city of Philadelphia.

If you plan to attend all or part of the symposium, I would appreciate your letting me know beforehand.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Bennison, Jr.
