DEATH NOTICE

We have received word of the death of the mother of R. Alan Lindsay, Executive Director of the Church Foundation ---

Geraldine Elizabeth Lindsay (nee Clements) of Bryn Mawr PA and Cape May Point, NJ passed away on 11/14/2010 peacefully at her home in Bryn Mawr. Born on June 8, 1919, Jerry Lindsay graduated from Upper Darby High School, where she played basketball. She was married to William A. Lindsay, III, who predeceased her.

She was an active member of St. Paul's Church in Exton, PA and St. Peters by-the-Sea Cape May Point NJ. She was a member of the altar guild and a Trustee of St. Peters by-the-Sea.

Spending most of her adult summers in Cape May Point, she was a member of the Corinthian Yacht Club of Cape May and was an avid sailor. She enjoyed water skiing. One of her greatest joys was watching and encouraging her family and friends to enjoy and celebrate life to the fullest.

She held many positions in her life. She was secretary to the art department at Curtis Publishing for the Saturday Evening Post, the secretary to the Board of Directors for Moore College of Art in Philadelphia, the secretary to the Head Master at the Country Day School of the Sacred Heart and a secretary for the Department of Art and Architecture at Bryn Mawr College.

She is survived by her three sons R. Alan Lindsay and his wife Gayle Lindsay of Chester Springs, John D. Lindsay and his wife Thelma Dickerson of Havertown PA and Steven W. Lindsay and his wife Mary Chris Lindsay of Havertown PA. She had eight grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Friends and family may call at the Stuard Funeral Home 104 Cricket Ave Ardmore, PA 19003 on Thursday, 11/18/2010 6:30-8:30 PM. Funeral Services will be at St. Paul's Exton PA on 11/19/2010 at 11:00 AM and followed by the burial at Arlington Cemetery in Drexel Hill, PA. The church will be open at 10:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions be made to St. Paul's Episcopal Church 1105 East Lincoln Highway, Exton, PA 19341 or St. Peter's by-the-Sea, P.O. Box 261, Cape May Point, NJ 08212.
